AGREED FINAL JUDGMENT

For good cause shown, as evidenced by the agreement of the parties, judgment is entered as follows:

1. Defendants Vincent Gould, Shannon Gould, Kristin Motley and Motley 4, LLC (hereafter collectively referred to as the “Individual Defendants”) are not currently associated with or in any way involved in the business of Defendants We The People USA, Inc., We The People Forms and Service Centers USA, Inc., We The People of Nashville, TN, Inc., and We The People of Knoxville, TN, Inc. (hereafter collectively referred to as the “Corporate Defendants”).

2. The Individual Defendants shall not, collectively or separately, purchase a franchise or in any other way become associated in any form of business with the Corporate Defendants.

3. If the Individual Defendants, collectively or separately, acquire an ownership interest or accept a management role in any other commercial business that offers for sale products or services relating to the legal rights of pro se consumers under Tennessee law, or the legal rights of pro se consumers under federal law applicable to Tennessee residents, property or issues, the Individual Defendants shall be bound by the provisions of Sections Five (5), Six (6), Seven (7), Eight (8), and Nine (9) of the Agreed Final Judgment entered by this Court on February 9, 2006, resolving the State of Tennessee's claims against the Corporate Defendants.

4. Any remaining court costs are hereby assessed against Defendants We The People USA, Inc., We The People Forms and Service Centers USA, Inc., We The People of Nashville, TN, Inc., and We The People of Knoxville, TN, Inc.

IT IS SO ORDERED, ADJUDGED AND DECREED, this the 9th day of February, 2006.
